

The Payroll Support Network - the friendly place of payroll

Welcome to the Payroll Support Network (PSN), a community of payroll people who believe that support, connection, and even a little joy should be part of the job.

Wherever you are in your payroll journey, you're one of us. PSN is here to make sure you never have to figure things out alone.

PSN ducks on tour for National Payroll Week

What a week! We celebrated the people behind the payslips in true PSN style. Awards, ducks, and a whole lot of payroll pride.

We saw lots of nominations for our Payroll Hero awards. A winner in each category won a £50 amazon voucher thanks to our sponsor, WH People.

The winners were:

Payroll leadership: Simon Parsons

Dedication to Payroll: Satwinder Phull

Payroll Peacekeeper: Charlotte Bembridge

Lots of sessions were hosted, including sessions from Jeni Morris on NMW and Max van der Klis-Busink on Global Payroll.

We got to meet so many of our PSN friends at London Sky Garden for the PSN launch, and at the CIPP Payroll Services Summit.

Thank you to everyone for making our first National Payroll Week one to remember!

Our Autumn campaign - 'Wonderful You'

We've loved hearing stories from peers across the country of their experiences in payroll - the highs, the lows, the laughs, the cries.

That's why this autumn we turned our focus to the people behind the payslips. We held sessions led by the 'payroll monk' AJ Jain on resilience and wellbeing, and learnt more about neurodiversity with Cybill Watkins.

We are so grateful for their time, and are excited to confirm that both will be doing further sessions in the new year!

A big duck filled thank you to Hays recruitment for hosting three wonderful roundtables in November.

These took place in London, Manchester and Edinburgh. A very big thank you to those who attended.
